An Address by the Treasurer.

To the Members :

It is not improper to remind you that the officials of this society repay the honor of being elected to office with gratuitous work. That the labor involved adds to the burden of already overtaxed time. That the treasurer mailed during the past year about 1000 letters and received about 500 replies. That statements for dues were sent out four times, when one should have been sufficient. That tardy payment of dues means two replies: receipt to the member and notice thereof to the secretary. That in addition to the correspondence all receipts must be entered in the books—250 members, three books, 750 entries. Next the handling of the money, all of course in small amounts—$514. dues were received on 90 different days, average $5.71 per day—embracing visits to post-office cashing orders, and to bank making deposits, making payments, obtaining and filing receipts, and mailing back volumes to those paying dues for past years. That all this eats into time like strong acid.

Therefore please be considerate with your servant and make it a rule to pay your dues at once upon receipt of the statement, and thereby somewhat ease his labors and make serving you a pleasure instead of a heavy burden.

Yours Respectfully,

THE TREASURER.

CONSTITUTION.

ADOPTED AT ROCHESTER, 1892.

ARTICLE I.

This Association shall be called the AMERICAN MICROSCOPICAL SOCIETY. Its object shall be the encouragement of microscopical research.

ARTICLE II.

Any person interested in microscopical science may become a member of this Society upon written application and recommendation by two members, nomination by the Executive Committee, and election by a majority of the members of the Society present at any regular session of the Society. Honorary members may also be elected by the Society on nomination by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE III.

The officers of this Society shall consist of a President and two Vice-Presidents, who shall hold their office for one year, and shall be ineligible for re-election for two years after the expiration of their terms of office, together with a Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be elected for three years, and be eligible for re-election.

ARTICLE IV.

The duties of the officers shall be the same as are usual in similar organizations; in addition to which it shall be the duty of the President to deliver an address during the meeting at which he presides; of the Treasurer to act as custodian of the property of the Society, and of the Secretary to edit and publish the Proceedings of the Society.

ARTICLE V.

There shall be an Executive Committee, consisting of the officers of the Society, three members elected by the Society, and the past Presidents of the Society, and of the American Society of Microscopists.

ARTICLE VI.

It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to fix the time and place of meeting and manage the general affairs of the Society.

ARTICLE VII.

The initiation fee shall be three dollars, and the dues shall be two dollars annually, paid in advance.

ARTICLE VIII.

The election of officers shall be by ballot.

ARTICLE IX.

Amendments of the Constitution may be made by a two-thirds vote of all members present at any annual meeting, after having been proposed at the preceding annual meeting.

By-Laws.

I.

The Executive Committee shall, before the close of the annual meeting for which they are elected, examine the papers presented and decide upon their publication or otherwise dispose of them. All papers accepted for publication must be completed by the authors and placed in the hands of the Secretary by October 1st succeeding the meeting.

II

The Secretary shall edit and publish the papers accepted, with the necessary illustrations, in four numbers. The first number to be issued not later than October 1, after the meeting, and the remaining three numbers at intervals of not more than three months.

III.

The number of copies of Proceedings of any meeting shall be decided at that meeting. Each author of papers accepted and published shall be entitled to 25 separates of his paper and as many more, at the cost of publishing, as he may request at the time that his manuscript is sent to the Secretary.

IV.

Papers accepted for publication by the Society shall not be published elsewhere until after they have appeared in the Proceedings of the Society, except by consent of the Executive Committee.

V.

No applicant shall be considered a member until he has paid his dues. Any member failing to pay his dues for two consecutive years and after two written notifications from the Treasurer shall be dropped from the roll, with the privilege of reinstatement at any time on payment of all arrears. The Proceedings shall not be sent to any member whose dues are unpaid.

VI.

The election of officers shall be held on the morning of the last day of the annual meeting. Their term of office shall commence at the close of the meeting at which they are elected, and shall continue till their successors are elected and qualified.

VII.

Candidates for office shall be nominated by a committee of five members of the Society. This committee shall be elected by a plurality vote, by ballot, after free nomination, on the second day of the annual meeting.

VIII.

All motions or resolutions relating to the business of the Society shall be referred for consideration to the Executive Committee before discussion and final action by the Society.

IX.

Members of the Society shall have the privilege of enrolling members of their families (except men over 21 years of age) for any meeting on payment of one-half the annual subscription (1.00).

Approved by the Society, August 11, 1892.

LIST OF MEMBERS.

The figures denote the year of the member's election, except '78, which marks an original member. The Proceedings are not sent to members in arrears, and two years' arrearage forfeits membership. (See Article VII of the Constitution.)

Contributors are advised to underscore all specific names in their essays, and to prepare their drawings with india-ink on Bristol board, and somewhat larger than the finished plate, which, if full page, should be 10 by 18 centimeters or in that proportion, and on which letters of reference should appear 2 to 3 millimeters in length. By reducing a larger drawing, more perfect and finer work is obtained, but no more lines need be put on it than if made the exact size. The Secretary will gladly give any information desired, and will receive pencil sketches from those unacquainted with drawing, the object being to secure good illustrations at the least expense. Twenty-five separates are furnished by the Society, and as many more at cost of printing as are marked on the proof when it is read by the author.

Pay all dues to MAGNUS PFLAUM, Treas., 415 Grant St., Pittsburg, Pa., from whom back numbers may be obtained.
